

Ethics in Lutheran Perspective Course Schedule

After you have registered for the course you will be enrolled in the course site Friday Sept. 6. At that time you will receive login information and have access to the course website. These first few days are for you to browse the site and submit introductions to yourself in threaded discussion. Tuesday Sept. 10 at 8:30 PM Central Time you will have an orientation using Zoom video conferencing. Instructions are in the website. Friday September 13 will mark the beginning of the course sessions.

Weekly course Flow:

Friday through Sunday

- Watch the lecture on DVD
- Post your reflections on the lecture by Sunday night
- Respond in threaded discussion to your small group's reflections on the reading material from earlier in the week

Monday through Thursday

- Read the assigned readings
- Post your reflections on the readings by Thursday night.
- Respond in threaded discussion to your small group's essays on the previous lecture.

Zoom calls: In sessions 4 and 9 you will have a live discussion via Zoom on Tuesdays at 8:30 PM Central Time. Those weeks you will have one less set of posting to do those weeks

This flow keeps the class manageable for both participants and facilitator. Your postings are the way your show up to class. If you are not able to complete postings by the expected date please let your classmates know in the Joys and Concerns forum so that no one is worried.
