

Systematic Theology:

Fundamentals of Christian Theology for the 21st Century

Jan. 29- April 29, 2021

Class Facilitator: Dr. Winston Persaud, Wartburg Seminary

Course Schedule

Orientation Conference call Tuesday Jan. 26 at 7:30 PM Central Time: You will be enrolled in the course site a few days before the orientation phone call. Please take the orientation week to explore the course site. There are a number of tasks to do during the orientation time: update your profile, introduce yourself in the “Getting to Know You” forum, and indicating your choice about “Why are you taking this course?” You can’t hurt anything, click around the course homepage and explore! There will also be an orientation call with the course facilitator on Tuesday January 26 at 7:30 PM Central Time. This call will be done using Zoom, a tool that can be joined by video or phone. There are instructions for the call in the class website.

Weekly course guide:

Sometime Friday through Sunday...

- Watch the lectures for the session
- Read any assigned readings
- Post your thoughts in the discussion essay forum

Monday through Tuesday

- Read the forum postings
- Respond to 2 of your classmates in the discussion essay forum with a 1-3 sentence response
- Post your thoughts in the key question forum

By Thursday evening of each week

- Read the forum postings
- In the key question forum respond to at least 2 other participants with 1-3 sentences.

Variation: Sessions 4 and 9

In these 2 sessions instead of the second forum, there will be a live small group discussion for 1 hour on Tuesday evening at 7:30 PM Central Time. These will also be done using Zoom.

Final Paper

For those taking this course for preparation for any certification, the final paper is due May 13, 2021, two weeks after the completion of the course.
